HANCOCK AND HOOPER'S EXCELLENT ADVENTURE • COMEDY*22:45 - 23:45 • Southsider (Venue 148) • 3-13 August

At Miskatonic Time Travel University two lecturers await news of a study grant. He's a pompous idiot from the past, she's a space hippy from the future; together they perform stand-up, poetry, puns and nerdy. A silly, joyous jaunt through the space-time continuum with CJ Hooper and Ali Hancock.

BLA BLÁ BLÁ... WHAT ELSE? • COMEDY*22:45 - 23:45 • Southsider (Venue 148) • 14-17 August

Bláithín de Burca returns with her wry, sharp, unapologetic brand of Nasty Woman comedy to serve up her ever-sassy musings on the complicated and oft-misunderstood world of intersectional feminism... and find the bits worth laughing at. Hot-take standup meets tipsy-bitting at the afterparty - There will be hysteria (and wine. Always wine.)

CHOOSING MY RELIGION • COMEDY*22:45 - 23:40 • Southsider (Venue 148) • 18-24 August

Choosing My Religion is Sean Marshall's hilarious look at a modern world where we find ourselves forever changing our lifestyle to keep up with the trends in this new age of wellness, veganism and hot yoga. No religions were harmed in the making of this show.

ALEXANDER & MCQUEEN ARE DOING IT FOR THE CRAIC • COMEDY22:45 - 23:40 • Brewdog (Venue 102) • 3-13 August

Ireland's heritage stretches from the mystical to the mildly unhinged - from tales of Celtic mythology to Jedward. Philip Alexander and Aideen McQueen could attempt to meticulously address this overwhelming cultural discrepancy... or they could just have a bit of a laugh.

LOBSTER SOCIAL IMPROV PRESENTS: TALES OF BRYONY DEEP • COMEDY*22:45 - 23:35 • Brewdog (Venue 102) • 14-19,21-24 August

Deep in the smoky Lobster Tavern a bounty of unsavoury characters collect. Straight off their brine washed decks these sailors share tales of their adventures across the seven seas. With your help and suggestions our salty sea dogs will tell you myths and legends of what lies beyond the horizon and sing a couple of sea shanties to boot.

PETER BUCKLEY HILL AND SOME COMEDIANS XX • COMEDY*22:50 - 23:50 • Ciao Roma (Venue 283) • 3-6,8-13,15-20,22-24 August

Twenty years of this show, spread over the 24 years of the Free Fringe. Two guest comedians a night, maybe three, compered by the increasingly wrinkly and decrepit Peter Buckley Hill. No breeding pairs left in the wild; extinction looms. You missed the dodo; come and see this.

Award-winning Pieter Egnieja is Frank Sinistra, ex-tabloid reporter who's waiting for his wife's return from a girl's night out with hairdresser, Roger Paul. Whilst conducting his PR business, Frank sings original saloon songs and dishes the dirt on celebs; brilliantly accompanied by pianist Charles, formerly La Widdicombe's stud-muffin.

HOT GAYS - MARTIN DIXON AND GARETH EDWARD • COMEDY*22:50 - 23:50 • The Outhouse Bar (Venue 99) • 3-13,15-25 August

Martin Dixon and Gareth Edward are hot and bothered! Join these really sexy (honestly) gays and their special guests as they wax lyrical about the body beautiful, getting older and the dilemmas of dating. With special guests featuring the best of LGBTIQI talent from across the Fringe.

THE DRUNK AND HECKLE SHOW • COMEDY*23:00 - 00:00 • Banshee Labyrinth (Venue 156) Chamber Room • 3-25 August

Veteran Canadian comic David Tsonos hates one thing, The Drunk Heckler. Once the sun goes down in Edinburgh they come out, and since he can't beat them, he is inviting them. Now in its fourth year some comics say it is their favourite show to perform on. Watch David comere with 3 different guests each night as they take on the hecklers.

MISSPELLED YOUTH • COMEDY*23:00 - 00:00 • Bar Bados (Venue 32) Room 5 • 3-11,13-24 August

An action-packed hour combining elements of stand-up, storytelling, clown and cabaret themed around coming-of-age sexual awakenings and queer adolescence, Lauren and Giulia will take you on the ride of your life. "Standout performance" - The Guardian

NIAMH CURRAN: LEAVES BELFAST • COMEDY*23:00 - 23:45 • Carnivore (Venue 180) • 3-14,17-24 August

★★★★ Varsity After 4 years in England Niamh is shook. She spent most of her uni days being asked about the IRA and ranting about politics. Going into the real world she is faced with the problem of staying or leaving. But she's not liked in Belfast and she's not liked in England, so come see her make inappropriate jokes.

NOB STEWART - COMIN' AT YE! • COMEDY*23:15 - 00:15 • Bar Bados (Venue 32) Room 4 • 3-24 August

Nob Stewart tells tales of his crazy life in the shape of humorous poetry. He may even throw in the odd song for good measure as well as a bit of crowd banter between the poems. Come and find out why he proudly refers to himself as Scotland's Greatest Living Pyscopath! www.nobstewart.com

ALAS, POOR WARWICK COMEDY SOCIETY! • COMEDY*23:15 - 00:15 • Kilderkinn (Venue 227) • 3-8,10-16 August
